TICKETS: Tickets cost less than cash fares. They can be purchased from the bus drivers or at the BRTA offices, 67 Downing Parkway, Pittsfield, and 3 Columbus Avenue, Pittsfield.

FREE Transportation to:

- PCA’s: Personal care attendants accompanying BRTA-certified disabled persons with a BRTA issued ID that specifies the disabled person’s need for a PCA to travel.
- BIRTHDAYS: Free fare on your birthday (proof required).
- CHILDREN: Children 3 years or younger, when accompanied by an adult (limit 2 per adult).

Half fare is available to the elderly (60+), persons with valid Medicare card, and disabled persons with valid Massachusetts Access Pass.

BRTA BUS DRIVERS CANNOT MAKE CHANGE.

Transfers: Transfer slips are free of charge. If you need to transfer to another bus to reach your destination, tell the bus operator where you pay your fare and you will be issued a transfer slip. Transfer slips are valid for travel in one direction on a different route until the time noted by the bus operator.

Fare Zones: Each community is considered a “fare zone.” A fare is collected for each town in which you will travel, including the town in which you board the bus. There is a four zone maximum charge for travel in one direction.
